To Whom It May Concern:

Morgan Usry has asked that I write a letter supporting her efforts to obtain a job in her chosen career field of journalism. I am happy to do so.

I taught Ms. Usry in three classes and I served as her academic adviser during her time at the University of Southern Mississippi in the School of Communication. I found her to be a diligent student who maintained a good attendance schedule in her classes and met deadlines for work in those classes. Ms. Usry is a reserved individual but will speak up when she needs help or does not understand an assignment.

Ms. Usry has worked and written extensively for USM's student newspaper, The Student Printz, during her college career. She joined the staff as a writer in 2018 and has remained on that staff in some capacity since that time. She served as the news editor for the newspaper during her last semester. That same semester, she served as a newsreader and host for Southern Miss Today, a radio program that airs on WUSM-FM, the student radio station at the university. Ms. Usry says she has "a passion for telling peoples' stories through writing and other forms of media." She certainly produced a large volume of quality work during her time with both The Student Printz and WUSM.

Ms. Usry would be an asset in any firm needing her research, writing and editing skills. She would bring a quiet confidence to your company and I have no problem recommending her to you.

Should you need additional information you think I may be able to provide, please do not hesitate to contact me at Margaret.williams@usm.edu or 601-266-6746.

Sincerely,
